A brief history lesson to employees of the US Dept. of Veterans Affairs.

VA employees are some of the most racially intolerant people I have ever encountered, in addition to hating veterans for being veterans, in Toto; and, am surprised to find the following circumstances as a grown and fertilized hate-bed in a US government agency, which claims to uphold laws against such atrocities. I am a 'live and let live' person; however, after dealing with such racial impatience, especially from the agency's misandrist employees, I faced some frightening, deeply hidden, very dark aspects about me that needed self-examination and self-understanding. I now realize how early American colonists, that committed the longest human genocide known to human history, systemically murdering hundreds of millions of US indigenous people and ditto for German Nazi's Jewish holocaust could have so hatefully done such gross, criminal, injustice to other human beings. The contempt openly and clandestinely expressed for us by those pampered, administrative, US government VA employees was overwhelming. And that inherited, dark, spitefulness is why they mistreat, cripple and kill veterans same as the

He intermarried into the Florida Seminole tribes, which along with my Cherokee blood intermixed with black ex-slave bloodlines, which makes me just as black as any negro but in smaller quantity. After emancipation freeing black slaves of their bondage, many of your men joined with US military. They were known as The Buffalo Soldiers. They were US Army Calvary warriors or horse soldiers. The Buffalo Soldiers hunted down my people and unmercifully butchered them as part of the longest genocide in human history. I will let that sink in a moment. Again, the black nation butchered my people, as part of the longest human ethnic cleansing known to human history. Out of racial hatred, the black nation repaid our cup of human kindness as gift to your people in their greatest time and need, with bloodshed and tears. That makes you no different than the oppressors that your nation claims to oppose. You are just like them in your racial intolerance and hypocrisy then as now! I do not present this in hatred or anger...sadness, yes, pity – more so; but not as the aforementioned. To do so would reduce me to below aforementioned fine christian pilgrims who brutally, inhumanely, slaughtered my people same as Nazis did to the Jews. What I saw in those civil service workers were the hundreds of millions of my murdered ancestor's faces destroyed by this very hatred expressed by them at veterans and my ancestors. When you attack me, you persecute my ancestral heritage in Toto.

I would like to point out to VA's misandrist, racist, bigots in particular a few inconvenient truths. When the fine christian European pilgrims landed on this continent none of the first boat loads survived North America's harsh winter climate. Out of human empathy and love we taught them as our brothers and sisters how to survive. They repaid our kindness with brutal murder, rape, diseases, robbery and the longest ethnic genocide known to human history. Another first for which Amerikans can be proud? We were the first slaves subjugated by the christian colonists. Bonded blacks were imported as labor commodity into this country well after our mass extinction was well underway. Contrary to popular propaganda, black slavery did not originate in this land as did ours. That subjugation began thousands of years ago in some far away place the level of your oppressors and you. Why? Because I know better and consciously chose to remain above that, which is the only power any human has: the power to choose between following good or evil. Another reason, for those of you reading this, unless very ancient, none of you were alive during that holocaust, which finally ended as the first phase in early 1900's. Moreover, you are under the evil spell of conditioned ignorance by environment and government into believing what you do. However, what you do remains your personal choice and consequences. Nevertheless, in a way the sins of your ancestors still belong to you. Attacking society and my heritage, when you persecute me, you disrespect my ancestors, for perceived crimes of which we are not guilty, in fact just the opposite, over a century old, blaming people who were not alive or had anything to do with what our ancestors might have done, implicates your crimes more than ever! My point to the black nation people, most especially to the racist, bigoted, misandrist VA employees that disgraced my ancestral heritage, before damning the person or people with only a speck in the eye, try removing the three planks from your willfully and time. Yet, black nation VA employees punish my people for sins of another? During the US black slave era, my people gave runaway blacks sanctuary within our tribes. We accepted you as our brothers and sisters! Thousands of runaways found open arms, food, shelter and safety from their oppressors. We risked our lives, and often lost them, defending and providing you that grace. Many liked our way of life so much that they intermarried and remained with us as family. My great, great grandfather was an Afro-French Freeman aka black Freeman. He came to this country not as an indenture but as a freeman of the French nation.	blinded vision to better see the big picture. In doing so, you will also notice behind the single bony finger that you point at us, are three pointing at you. Try dropping the hand of judgment and look into the mirror first at you before projecting your self-hate, self-pity and anger at what you see in the mirror of others that reflect you in Toto. I would think in regaining your ancestral humanity lost for thousands of years, that you would be more aware of your actions, understand the horrors of ethnic ill-treatment, to have learned not to repeat the sin. Evidently, in those millennia, you have not understood a thing.

PUBLISHED HISTORICAL EXCERPTS ABOUT THE FAMED BUFFALO SOLDIERS AND THEIR OWNERS:

The history between the United States and Native Americans doesn't make the US look like the shining hero it pretends to be. The parts of history that point to the country's near-genocide and mass murders are rarely talked about in classrooms below the collegiate level. If they are, they're usually touched on in the briefest possible manner or absolutely twisted to cover up the nation's dark past so as to keep from tainting young minds' feelings about the ol' red, white, and blue. The truth is much darker. It includes things like Manifest Destiny, invasion, and mass murder. It includes travesties such as the murdering of tribal leaders, genocide, and forced assimilation.

My name is Steve Melendez and I am the president of the American Indian Genocide Museum here in Houston, Texas. Currently we have been protesting the Buffalo Soldiers Museum, also located here in Houston We are struggling to prevent the glorification of ethnic cleansing and genocide. The Buffalo Soldiers take great pride in dressing up in Cavalry uniforms and parading around as if hunting our people down and forcing them onto reservations was at one time, the patriotic thing to do.

Dr. Quintard Taylor (who is black) of the University of Washington has put the whole situation in perspective when he said, "Here you have black men killing red men for the white man."
Has it been forgotten that the Buffalo Soldiers were so recently emancipated from 200 years of slavery by the white man at the time? Perhaps one day the American Indian Genocide Museum will be on the Mall in Washington D. C. with the Jewish Holocaust Museum.

The months of October and November bring two reminders of the brutal genocide of the indigenous peoples of the Americas. For many indigenous peoples (often called Indians or Native Americans), Columbus Day and Thanksgiving are occasions of great sorrow[and time of weeping tears for our ancestors.] As for Thanksgiving, American Indian Movement leader Russell Means has explained that a proclamation made by the governor of Plymouth reveals that after a colonial militia had returned from murdering the men, women and children of a village of indigenous people [TO STEAL THEIR WINTER FOOD SUPPLIES], a holiday was proclaimed to give thanks for the massacre. The proclamation encouraged other colonies to do likewise.

The diary of Christopher Columbus discloses that when he first observed indigenous people, he said: "They ought to be good servants [slaves]." When a member of his crew later captured an indigenous woman, Columbus "gave" the woman to him. When this woman resisted rape with blows and fingernails, the attacker's diary says: "I took a rope and thrashed her well, for which she raised such unheard of screams that you would not have believed your ears." When Columbus first arrived on the Caribbean island then-called Espanola in 1492, the indigenous population numbered approximately eight million. After a 20 year campaign of enslavement, torture and mass lynching, the population was reduced to 28,000—a decrease of 99 percent!

Numerous massacres were to follow in later years throughout North America. At the Sand Creek massacre all involving Buffalo Soldiers... the... genitals of indigenous women were carved from their corpses and retained as souvenirs.

Having first-hand knowledge of the brutality of white colonizers in the western hemisphere, indigenous peoples identified immediately with the plight of enslaved Africans. Africans who managed to escape from plantations were often given refuge by indigenous nations. So many Africans married into indigenous nations that it is estimated that approximately 95 percent of Africans born in America have at least one indigenous ancestor. [AND THE BLACK NATION REPAID OUR GRACE WITH JOINING THEIR OPPRESSORS IN OUR SLAUGHTER DURING ONE OF

THE LONGEST HUMAN GENOCIDES KNOWN TO THE WORLD. YOU ARE WELCOME, VA MISANDRIST, BIGOTS.]

Africans fought bravely as warriors. Africans formed military alliances with the Natchez nation, the Choctaws, the Ottawas, the Mohegan, and the Seminoles. Fierce, often successful battles were waged against racist white troops. The political and military solidarity between Africans and indigenous peoples has a long, rich history. [SO VA BIGOTS, ONCE WE FOUGHT TOGETHER AS BROTHERS AND SISTERS. ASK SELVES WHAT HAPPENED? WHY DID YOU ABANDON US TO SIDE WITH YOUR OPPRESSORS IN OUR GREATEST HOUR OF NEED? TO THEN CLAIM WE ARE NOT ALL LIKE THAT?!] [YOUR NATION INSTEAD SINGS] Praises are sung to the Black cavalrymen who have come to be known as the Buffalo Soldiers; even though the Buffalo Soldiers participated willingly in the genocidal slaughter of indigenous peoples

"We Africans owe more than an apology to the descendants of indigenous people killed by the Buffalo Soldiers. We owe ourselves an independent analysis of history that will help us avoid serving government interests to the detriment of other victimized peoples." Mark P. Fancher, The Black World Today, 25 October 2000, [THE AUTHOR SPEAKS SPECIFICALLY ABOUT YOU - VA, MISANDRIST, BIGOTS!]

……...

...it is worth noting, black soldiers writing in pension requests and veterans' newspapers showed no signs of a special regard for the Indians. They used the same dismissive epithets–"hostile tribes," "naked savages," and "redskins"—and the same racist caricatures employed by whites...Frank Schubert, The Myth of the Buffalo Soldier

.. a black private named Robinson went to a masquerade ball at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, in 1894, [MAKING FUN OF NATIVE AMERICANS] dressed as "an idiotic Indian squaw," according to a published report by a fellow soldier. Frank Schubert, The Myth of the Buffalo Soldiers

By the same token, it should not be too surprising to read of a black soldier calling a Plains Indian in 1890 "a voodoo nigger," Frank Schubert, The Myth of the Buffalo Soldiers

THE LARGEST CAMPAIGN OF RACIAL WARFARE IN HISTORY

In Northern America you had a form of genocide where the local populations were not ruled over, like they were in South America. They were driven out, and this obviously did not have a very good affect on their ability to survive.

AMERICAN IMPERIALISM AND RACIAL WAR A MODEL FOR HITLER

Hitler even used America as the model for the racial war that he wanted to launch in European Russia, and the idea of settling European Russia with Aryan blonde haired blue-eyed colonists. This was very much so modeled after what Hitler saw as a racial war in the United States to seize land and then displace these people from their land. .[NICE GOING AMERIKA...AS THE NAZI ROLE MODEL...]

Native American Genocide of indigenous peoples of North America.

"By 1891 the native [American Indian] population had been reduced to 2.5% of its original numbers and 97.5% of the aboriginal land base had been expropriated. Hundreds upon hundreds of native tribes with unique languages, learning, customs, and cultures had simply been erased from the face of the earth, most often without even the pretense of justice or law. " Peter Montague

...and the Buffalo Soldiers were part of that genocide.

Buffalo Soldiers were African Americans who fought in wars and battles. They were originally members of the U.S. 10th cavalry Regiment of the US army. They were given the nickname "Negro Calvary," by the Native Americans. On September 1868, the Buffalo Soldiers nearly killed 25 Apaches and were allowed after to collect scalping and souvenirs by Lieutenant Cusack. When they returned to Fort Davis, Texas, they were dressed in full Indian costume with head-dresses and faces painted comical style. "Damn any man who sympathizes with Indians... Kill and scalp all, big and little; nits make lice." - Col. John Chivington, Buffalo Soldier, Sand Creek massacre, 11-29-1864. This is just one of the many battles they had with the Indians.

And the list goes on and on of black nation racial atrocities against the Native American nation that helped and fought along side of you as brothers and sisters in black American’s hour of greatest need; we accepted you in our family with open arms of love and kindness. Then the black nation turned upon us in hunting our nations and the buffalo to brink of extinction. I would say the black communities have some serious soul searching to do if you can ever find it again! In light of recent and past accusations of racial intolerance against you by 'society' perhaps you should stop judging everyone else and face you and the evil atrocities many blacks are guilty of doing. This is mainly for racist, matriarchal, misandrist VA employees, and you know who you are, for attacking my heritage. But includes the rest in society currently making a ruckus. You not only bit the feeding helping hands but chopped up the whole body of Christ betraying Native American Nations. You are not only just like your owners to whom you play useful idiot puppets and CLAIM to oppose, but far, far worse.
